

On the ground floor (1st floor)

On the right side of the ground floor (1st Schdogg) visitors get an overview of the history of our half-timbered house and the changeable history of our villages.

To the left of "Ern", in Durmerscherisch the name for "floor"), our themes of popular piety and pilgrimage, to which a separate chapter is dedicated on our homepage, begin with the "Engelbert-Kleiser-Ecke", which we introduce in more detail in the chapter "Maria Bickesheim".

To the "Lobberle", which we also remember in Ern, we refer to the special page in the chapter "Local history.

Engelbert Kleiser = name of a blind priest

Lobberle = name of a light railway
